

Eggstremism on your plate.

Ever since Edwina Currie and Salmonella, the egg has been an item on the world government's hit list. Too much nutrition at a low price – enabling poor people to remain healthy.

Eggs have to be eliminated from the human diet.

Now WHO is winding up an eggy panic to help get another pandemonic event going.

Slaughtering millions of healthy birds. Cutting off the supply.

If bird flu is going to arrive – for the nth time – all previous bird flus were fake events – then no problem. Your immune system will do fine just as most people did with COVID.

They won't release a killer even if they could do. That would affect themselves. Rich people cannot be eggsterminated, so neither can you.

So get scrambling now! Or sunny side up if you prefer (avoiding toxic oils of course).
